

The primary duty of the Judiciary is to uphold the Constitution and the Laws without fear or favour, without being biased”

The Supreme Court of India